Table of Contents	"Section 5 – Optional Benefit" has been updated to: "Section 5 – Optional non-insurance Benefit"
Frequently Asked Questions (Page 5-6)	The FAQ 'What is a pre-existing condition?' is deleted and replaced with: What is a pre-existing condition? If any Condition existed or occurred prior to the Commencement Date of the First Policy Period or within any applicable Waiting Period, and you or your Vet were aware of the Condition, or a reasonable person in your circumstances would have been aware of the Condition, then it may be considered to be a Pre-existing Condition and excluded from Cover. This is the case, irrespective of whether the underlying or causative Condition was diagnosed at the time. Whether such a Condition is a Pre-existing Condition will depend on its nature and experience. Outside of any applicable waiting period, if your Pet has a Temporary Condition that is considered to be a pre-existing condition (because it occurred or existed prior to the Commencement Date of the First Policy Period, or during any applicable Waiting Period, but that Condition has not existed, occurred or shown noticeable signs, symptoms or an abnormality in the 18-month period immediately prior to your claim Treatment date), it will no longer be excluded from Cover as a Pre-existing Condition. Chronic Conditions and several other specified Conditions cannot fall within this category. Hereditary Conditions and congenital Conditions will also not be considered a Pre-existing Condition if they have not shown noticeable signs, symptoms or an abnormality at any time before the Commencement Date of the First Policy Period or during any applicable Waiting Period. Examples of Pre-existing Condition claims: 1. Prior to the Commencement Date of the First Policy Period, your Pet has a case of gastroenteritis due to some dietary indiscretion. The Condition is treated and your Pet recovers. You then purchase a pet insurance policy. Two years later, your Pet has another unrelated case of gastroenteritis. Your claim would be eligible for benefits because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The first gastroenteritis episode was a Temporary Condition, given that it normally resolves with Treatment and is not on the list of excluded Conditions in that definition. • There was more than an 18-month gap between the Conditions. • The second episode of gastroenteritis was not a Related Condition. • The Condition was not specifically excluded in the PDS.

	Pre-existing Temporary Condition that is covered: 2. Your Pet had a case of demodectic mange 18 months prior to the Commencement Date of the First Policy Period. The Condition is resolved after your Pet receives Treatment. Two years into the policy, your Pet contracts another case of demodectic mange. This claim would be eligible for benefits because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The first Condition was a Temporary Condition that is normally resolved with Treatment and is not on the list of excluded Conditions in that definition. • Your Pet did not have demodectic mange, or show any noticeable signs, symptoms or abnormality in relation to that Condition for more than an 18-month period. • The Condition was not specifically excluded in the PDS. Pre-existing Chronic Condition that is not covered 3. Your Pet is limping and is diagnosed with a grade two luxating patella (dislocating kneecap) within the applicable Waiting Period of the policy. Your Vet prescribes anti-inflammatory medication. This claim is not covered, because you and your Vet became aware of the Condition within the 30-day Waiting Period for this Condition. Two years later, your Pet requires surgery for the patella luxation. This Condition is excluded from Cover because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You and your Vet first became aware of the Condition in the applicable Waiting Period. • The Condition (patella luxation) is not a Temporary Condition, as it is specifically excluded from that definition. • As a result, it remains a Pre-existing Condition two years later. 4. Your Pet has had recurring seasonal allergies every spring and summer since it was two-months old. This recurs for a period greater than three months. You purchase a pet insurance policy and two years later make a claim for another round of allergy treatment. Your claim would not be eligible for benefits because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Condition is a Pre-existing Condition, given that you were aware of it prior to Commencement of your First Policy Period. • Your Pet's seasonal allergy condition is not a Temporary Condition, as it is specifically excluded as a Chronic Condition. This is because it was long-lasting, recurring and affected your Pet for a period greater than three months. • As a result, it remains a Pre-existing Condition two years later.
Frequently Asked Questions (Page 7)	Under the FAQ 'Can I seek pre-approval of my pet's upcoming treatment?' the following note has been added: Note: pre-approvals are not mandatory and not required in order to make a claim under your policy.
Frequently Asked Questions (Page 7)	The FAQ 'What is a temporary condition?' is deleted and replaced with: What is a temporary condition? A Temporary Condition is a Condition, which normally resolves with Treatment and which is not on the list of excluded Conditions in that definition. If your Pet has a Temporary Condition that is considered a Pre-existing Condition because it occurred or existed prior to the Commencement Date of the First Policy Period or during any applicable Waiting Period, but the Condition has not existed, occurred or shown noticeable signs, symptoms or an abnormality in the 18 month period prior to your claim Treatment, it will no longer be excluded from your policy as a Pre-existing Condition. Refer to the 'Temporary Condition' definition in 'Section 1 – Definitions' for more information.

A Sub-limit applies to the Consultation Fees that your Vet charges. This limit is stated on your Certificate of Insurance. When claiming for an eligible Condition, this limit only relates to the Consultation fee, and not any of the treatments or medications your Pet may receive during the visit.
